LATTIMER VERDICT.

Sheriff Martin and His Deputies Found Not Guilty.
Wilkesbarre, March 9.—The trial of Sheriff Martin and his 67 deputies, on trial for five weeks for the shooting of marching strikers at Lattimer on September 10, 1897, was given to the jury yesterday, and this morning they returned a verdict of not guilty.
The jury arrived at a verdict, it is said, without much difficulty. The result is received with anything but satisfaction by the friends of the strikers. Threats were made but no violence is indulged in.

HELD UP BY ROBBERS.

Reese Richards, Employed as Watchman, Attacked This Morning.
Mahanoy Plane, March 9.—Reese Richards, employed as watchman by the P. & E. Railway on the Shenandoah branch, near this place, was robbed by four men wearing handkerchiefs over the lower part of their faces as masks, at 4:30 o'clock this morning.
Richards was in his watch-box when the men, whom he believes were young fellows, came to the door and asked him what time it was. When he pulled out his watch to see they promptly relieved him of it and demanded his money and revolver. As he dis-claimed owning a pistol, they searched him and as he had but ten cents in money they considerately returned it to him for car fare and left, going along the track toward Haplananock.

Another watch-box at the "Flicker" crossing was broken into, presumably by the same gang. Previously an attempt was made to break into the saloon kept by a man named Matthews, at Mahanoy Plane, but a burglar alarm scared them off.

The C. & I. police are following up the clues received, and it is quite probable the robbers will be apprehended. As robberies are becoming entirely too frequent all such malefactors should receive the full extent of the law when caught.

Bickett's Cafe.
Clam soup, free, to-night. Meat cakes,

FAIR TO ALL.
A System That Carries With It Genuine Equality.

The Spring season has arrived and we are ready to fit with the largest, finest and best stock of clothing for men, youths and children ever brought to Shenandoah. Each article is sold with a guarantee as to quality and make, and every piece is made by us.
Have you heard of our One Price System?
Well, it is the best. Since the 3rd of March we have been doing business on a strictly One Price basis. No more cutting prices at our place. You find every garment marked distinctly at what it is actually worth to the consumer. If you like what you examine you take it at the price marked—nothing less and nothing more. Since the One Price system has been in operation our business is greater than ever it was before. People express surprise at the prices marked on our goods. We have always sold cheap, but under the One Price system our prices are still lower. We mark every piece at bottom rock and that mark becomes our One Price.
We can sell cheaper than other because we manufacture all our own clothing and have no rent to pay. Spare a few minutes to look at our show windows—none filled with men's clothing and the other with children's clothing. After looking you will agree with us that there never before was a larger and more complete display of clothing in children's and novelties in Shenandoah. Anyone who wants to see the latest styles in clothing should not miss looking at our windows.

A Fine Merchant Tailoring Department has been opened in our store and we have over $1000 worth of piece goods from which you select and can a suit made by our own tailors in our own building. We guarantee perfect fit and elegant finish at any price you want. No fit, no purchase.
MAMMOTH CLOTHING HOUSE,

P. S.—If anybody finds five days after making a purchase of us that we are not cheaper with our One Price system than any other store in the county, we redeem the goods and refund the money.

amounted to one paid admission, 25 cents.

THEY WILL WITHDRAW.

The County Commissioners and County Controller Will Resign.

TO TAKE EFFECT ON APRIL 1.

A Light Sentence For the Commissioners and the Withdrawal of Other Suits Will Follow—Trial of Commissioner Meyers Opened This Morning.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

Pottsville, March 9.—The County Commissioners and County Controller have determined to resign. Hon. John W. Ryan, counsel for County Commissioners John P. Martin, of Pinegrove; William A. Marr, counsel for Commissioner Bentz, and W. J.
Whitstone, counsel for County Controller B. H. Severn, got together during last evening and this morning and in accordance with an arrangement made at a consultation with the counsel for the prosecution, held late yesterday afternoon, both Commissioners Bentz and Martin, who were at the court house for the purpose of signing papers this morning pledging themselves to resign from their offices. Similar papers were taken to County Controller Severn, who is ill at his home in Shenandoah, and at noon to-day they were received signed by Mr. Severn.

Upon their presentation to Judge Bechtel a light sentence, embodying the payment of the costs may be imposed on Commissioners Bentz and Martin as to the nineteen counts in the misdemeanor in office suit, and the case fixed for trial at this time of court will be not pressed. The suit against County Controller Severn will also be not pressed, and the costs in both suits put on the defendants.
The Taxpayers' Association believes this tempering of the prosecution with mercy will serve the ends they aim at.

Late this afternoon it was announced that the resignations of the Commissioners and Controller will take effect on April 1st, 1898.
This will give the court time in which to appoint successors.

The court will not waste much time in appointing successors to both Commissioners.
There are a number of applicants for the berths.

The names of Frank Kantner, of Lofty; Joseph Nichol, of Yafelle; James Leahy, of Gilberton; William Decker, Mahanoy City; Rev. Edwards, Pottsville, who has a big petition ready for court, and others are prominently mentioned as successors to the Commissioners. The first named two are said to be in the lead.

The Controller will appoint the successor to County Controller Severn, and it is generally believed that Charles A. Snyder, Esq., who is an out and out candidate, will be named by the Governor. He has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination this year for this office.

The payment of the $10,000, with interest, will be guaranteed.

COMMISSIONER MEYERS' TRIAL.
After a half hour's consultation the counsel for the prosecution and counsel for Commissioner Bentz and Martin returned at 4:05 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Judge Bechtel was then in his private room. District Attorney Bechtel and other attorneys went in and had a talk with him. As a result the District Attorney called the case against Commissioner Charles Meyers for trial and Judge Bechtel ordered the polling of a jury to proceed. Counsel were not ready and the case was adjourned until nine o'clock this morning.

The court had refused to quash the second and third counts in the indictment, as asked for yesterday by E. B. Smith, Esq., and reserved his decision on count No. 7.

Judge Bechtel announced the quashing of counts Nos. 4, 15 and 16 of two indictments, leaving a total of 27 counts.

POLLING THE JURY.
This morning the counsel lined up as follows: For the Commonwealth, District Attorney E. A. Bechtel, A. W. Schalk, John F. Whalen, Fergus Farquhar, G. A. Berner and Charles A. Snyder, Esqs. For defense, E. B. Smith, and Charles A. Berger, Esqs.
William L. Sheffer, the prosecutor and agent for the Taxpayers' Association, was sitting at the Commonwealth's table and Commissioner Meyers, the defendant, looking none the worse for his worry, was seated near his lawyers. Close to him was his brother.

J. S. Brown, who has taught school for 27 years in Wayne township, was the first juror called. He was asked by Whalen if he had expressed any opinion against the Taxpayers' Association, whether he had heard or read of the case, and if he could render a verdict in accord with the evidence. He answered the questions satisfactorily to the satisfaction of the counsel. Attorney Smith said he did not belong to the Taxpayers' League and had never contributed money to it. He was excused by the defense.

J. H. Dunkleberger, of Hegin township, and James Head were stood aside by the Commonwealth.

Adam Barton, a carpenter of Pottsville, was sworn as juror No. 1. He said he was employed by the P. & E. C. & I. Co., but assured Mr. Smith that he could render a verdict in accordance with the evidence, even should it be developed that the company was intended.

Frank R. Webber, of Brummetown, was sworn as juror No. 2.

Charles A. Mantz, West Pann; William R.
Lauderfeldt, Ashland; C. P. Leib, Schuylkill Haven, and Harry Cartwright, Pottsville, were stood aside by the Commonwealth.
Edward Andrews, inventor, Pottsville; M. J.
Leahy, miner, Gilberton; Charles Laubstein, Ashland, and Dennis Haley, Miners-ville, were also stood aside by the Commonwealth.

Harry Lelsey had an opinion which would require evidence to remove and was challenged by the defense for cause. The court sustained the challenge.

A. C. Eisenhuth, of Orwigsburg, had no prejudice against William L. Sheffer, the prosecutor in the case. He had read of the suit and had talked about it. He was sworn as juror No. 3.

Oscar Kleckner, barber, Pottsville, formerly lived at Cresona, the home of defendant Meyers. He had merely a speaking acquaintance with him. Stood aside by the Commonwealth.

George R. DeLong, barber, Pottsville, heard the suit discussed and was stood aside by the defense.

P. J. Curley was stood aside and Josiah Wertman was excused by the court.

Peter Suber, a blacksmith of Minersville, said his employment by the P. & E. company would not influence him upon reaching a verdict. He was accepted as juror No. 4.

James Clifford, Sr., Mahanoy City, was stood aside by the Commonwealth, and so were David N. Keiser, Thomas Dolan and John Gray.

Harry Chance, druggist, of Pottsville, was sworn in as juror No. 5.

William Stout said he read a newspaper that had nothing in it about the Commissioners' case. He was at once stood aside by the Commonwealth.

D. G. Lewis, of St. Clair, had formed and expressed an opinion, but could weigh the evidence on its merits. Evidence, however, would be required to remove the opinion.
This juror was closely questioned by Judge Bechtel in reference to the influence of his opinion and was finally stood aside by the court.

Charles Marquardt, miner, Girardville, was sworn as juror No. 6. He is employed by the P. & E. C. & I. Co.

Michael Shore, of Cass township, and Monro Sherman, Schuylkill Haven, were stood aside.

James I. Helwig, of Lavelle, was sworn in as juror No. 7.

Daniel Ellis, Sr., Pottsville, and formerly of Shenandoah, and John Burns, also of Shenandoah, were stood aside.

Edward F. Lortie, of Donaldson, said he worked for the P. & E. C. & I. Co., but didn't think he would lose his job if he rendered a verdict in accordance with the evidence. The prosecutor said "swear," but the defense answered "stand aside."

At this point the jury panel was exhausted and Michael Ward, the first juror stood aside, and was recalled. "Swear," said Mr. Whalen and the defense agreed. He made juror No. 8.
J. H. Dunkleberger was recalled and sworn as juror No. 9.

James Head was challenged by the Commonwealth, and as was Charles A. Mantz.

Edward H. Lauderfeldt, undertaker, Ashland, made the tenth juror; C. T. Leib, Schuylkill Haven, the eleventh and Elias Klinger, of Pottsville, the twelfth. This point was reached at 10:30 o'clock.

Fergus Farquhar, Esq., made the opening address for the Commonwealth, reviewing the charges in a clear and comprehensible manner, dwelling on the law and the importance of complying with it in every particular so that the interests of the people may be protected. Mr. Farquhar concluded at 11:35 o'clock.

Judge Bechtel then quashed count No. 7, relating to the failure to keep a tax lien record.

THE FIRST WITNESS.
Chief Clerk of the County Commissioners Horace Reber was the first witness called and while waiting for him Mr. Schalk directed special attention to some legal points involved by the separation of the Commissioners on trial.

Mr. Smith said the defense would admit the fact that the defendant was elected a County Commissioner in November, 1897, that he served from Jan. 1, 1897, after having served his bond. He did this to save time.

Clerk Reber was sworn and said he was elected as Chief Clerk on January 1, 1897.
He was examined as to the extra paid on the county hospital contract and is still on the stand giving testimony on figures involved in the contract as the Herald goes to press.

JOYCE SUES.
T. J. Joyce, of Mahanoy City, to-day brought suit against Constable M. F. Geiger, of Mahanoy City, for negligence to enforce justice. The suit was entered before Justice Whitney, but was dismissed by the court to-day.

SUICIDE AND PROBABLE MURDER.
John Davis, coal operator at St. Clair, received a telegram calling him to Millersville, near Lancaster, and stating that his son, William, who has been attending a business college in Philadelphia, is in trouble.

It is reported that young Davis was shot four times by a companion who then turned a revolver on himself, and that the latter's life is in danger. Mr. Davis left on the first train this morning for Lancaster.

A later report states that young Davis is still living, but the other young man died almost instantly. Both had been attending Pierce's business college in Philadelphia and went to the Millersville Normal School to pay their respects to a young lady of St.
Clair who is a student at the school. What the nature of the trouble was has not yet been stated.

TRANSFER OF PROPERTY.
A deed was to-day recorded from T. J.
Broughall and wife to William Broughall for premises in Shenandoah, the consideration being $5,700.

Prompt Payment.
To the Officers of the Home Friendly Insurance Company, of Baltimore, Md., R. L.
Haley, President.

GRAVEYARD.—I desire to extend to you my grateful appreciation of your society and the promptness with which your representatives have settled the policy held in your society by my dearly beloved husband who was instantly killed in the mines yesterday.
This amount ($45) was paid to me to-day by your superintendent, W. T. Evans, and agent, James Patterson. I cheerfully recommend your society to the people of this community.

MRS. MARY FLOOR,
Shenandoah, March 8, 1898.

Went to the Klondike.
Thomas P. Riley, who was employed as a general hand by the Shenandoah Beef Company for several years, left town this morning for the Klondike. He first goes to Burfalo, and thence via the Canadian Pacific Railroad to Seattle, Washington, where he will join Henry Golden, a brother of P. J.
Golden. The two men will then strike out for the land of gold. Mr. Riley's object in making the long trip is to seek a fortune and the Herald joins the many friends he leaves here in wishing him success. By the way, the Klondike here is burning loudly in the hat of W. J. Brown, who is employed at Swift & Co's branch house at Mahanoy City, but it is not likely that he will risk a visit until steam heat is introduced in the chilly climate. Billy's intimate friends say he has a big scheme in his brain. He read about a man who drifted into such hard luck in the Klondike that he was obliged to break up his valuable sled for fire wood. Billy is credited with saying that he will take a big dog with him and using the bark for fuel.

Fell From a Porch.
The ten-year-old son of Thomas Hanlon, of Wm. Penn, fell from a porch this afternoon and received probably fatal injuries. It is thought that his neck is broken.

FUND FOR DEFENSE

Senate Unanimously Passes the $50-000,000 Appropriation.

MANY PATRIOTIC SPEECHES!

The Passage of the Appropriation, it is Held by the Majority, Will be Preparing For War Become the Surest Guarantee of Peace.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

Washington, March 8.—Another step in support of the Administration was made by the Senate to-day when it passed, without debate, the bill appropriating $50,000,000 for the national defense.

Washington, March 9.—In a spirit of patriotism, with eloquent words ringing in their ears, every member of the house of representatives yesterday responded to the president's first call to meet the Spanish situation by casting their vote for a bill placing in President McKinley's hands $50,000,000 to be expended at his discretion for the national defense. Purely lines were swept away, and with a unanimous voice congress voted its confidence in the administration. Many members who were paired with absent colleagues took the responsibility of breaking their pairs, an unprecedented thing in legislative annals, in order that they might go on record in support of this vast appropriation to maintain the dignity and honor of their country. Speaker Reed, who, as the presiding officer, seldom votes only in case of a tie, had his name called, and voted in his capacity as a representative. The sense of impulsiveness which greeted the announcement of the vote—43 yeas and no nays —has seldom been paralleled in the house.

All day long the galleries were jammed with enthusiastic spectators, applauding to the echo the stentorian patriotism of the words of eloquence which were uttered by the members on the floor. All the speeches were brief, although four hours were allowed for debate. The first speaker, Mr. Cullum, for time that no one member was given more than five minutes, and most of them had to content themselves with a barely fraction of a minute. In all 69 speeches were made. With one exception members from the north and south, the east and west, the states and the territories, battle scarred veterans of the Union and Confederate armies, all joined in proclaiming their support of the country's chief magistrate in the face of a possible foreign war.

General Crossen, of Ohio, said that if he did not come the $50,000,000 appropriated by this bill would be wisely expended, if it only served to show the world that when threatened from without the hearts of the American people beat as one. In the whole debate there was only a slight dissenting note cast by the speech of General Bingham, of Pennsylvania, a gallant soldier, who served with distinction under Hancock.
He spoke too conservatively for the aroused temper of the house, and when he insisted that our relations with Spain were as friendly as they had been for years many of the members blazed him. While almost every member who spoke deprecated the possibility of war, a wide divergence of opinion as to how close were hostilities manifested itself in the debate.

The general contention by the majority, among them the leaders on both sides, was that this appropriation, by preparing for war, would prove the surest guarantee of peace. Others insisted that war's alarms would soon be heard, and Mr. Mann, of Illinois, declared that war actually existed in all save name. The speeches which attracted most attention were those of Messrs. Cannon, Henderson and Dolliver on the Republican and Messrs.
Bailey and Baynes on the Democratic side.

Yesterday's session of the senate was largely devoted to the consideration of the District of Columbia appropriation bill. The bill, containing a provision for the reduction to about one-half of the present rates of telephone charges in the district, was passed. A bill appropriating $25,000 for the sale of the book agents of the Methodist Episcopal Church South was also passed. As it has already passed the house, the measure now goes to the president for his signature.

Despite numerous conferences of officials of the continuation of the propositions now in progress on a large scale to put the country in a state of defense, of the outburst of patriotic speeches in congress, there was a certain feeling apparent in the best informed circles that the situation as to our relations with Spain were yesterday much more favorable than it was on Monday. Perhaps the semi-official advice received from Madrid, indicating a peaceful purpose on the part of the Spanish government, contributed in large measure to that feeling, or it may have been that the growing knowledge of the vast extent of our own resources tended to the belief that they would impress others with the futility of attacking the United States. However that may be, the feeling prevailed, and at the White House, too, after the cabinet meeting, wherein all of the facts that were known to the president as to the existing state of affairs were laid unreservedly before the cabinet members and discussed.

While Captain Brownson is going abroad for the government to learn what ships of war are for sale, and their condition, he will not necessarily make any purchases. The officer left Washington last night, and will take the St. Paul to Southampton, sailing from New York. He will report his arrival immediately at the United States embassy in London, but further than that the captain declines to indicate the places he will visit in Europe. He has been furnished all of the information in the possession of the navy department respecting the shipping in course of construction in Eu-ed in a First ward Lithuanian most certain that he would have been killed had he not been rescued by his friends. He was struck Petroski on the elbow of the wrist. The victim also received a blow on the head. An artery in the arm severed and when Dr. Stein arrived and almost died to death. Eleven were put in the man's head and fifteen more. The physician also took a blow on the head from the arm.

of the assailants. Others are to be ar-
